

REMINGTON COLLEGE (NASHVILLE CAMPUS)
ADDENDUM TO APPLICATION AND ENROLLMENT AGREEMENT

Student Name: _____

Student Number: _____

LAPTOP COMPUTER AGREEMENT – PROPERTY OF THE CAMPUS UNLESS AND UNTIL TITLE TRANSFERRED

Remington College provides students enrolled in the Computer-Aided Design and Drafting Program with a laptop computer that the Student may use on or off Campus. The Student hereby acknowledges that the computer is owned by Remington College and Student will have no ownership of such computer, except in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. The Student's right to have possession and use of the laptop computer is conditioned upon the Student abiding by the terms of this Agreement. The Student acknowledges and understands that the laptop computer they will be provided pursuant to this Agreement may be either new or used depending on availability. This means that some Students could receive a new computer, while other Students in the same Program may receive a used computer. Remington College does not represent that each Student will receive a new laptop computer.

The computer software, configurations, and images are customized to Remington College's specifications. The software on the computer issued is licensed to Remington College and must not be copied or transferred in any manner. The computer is considered to be a necessary part of the program, and no other laptop or notebook computer may be used on Remington College's computer network.

The Student is responsible for any damage to the computer issued to the Student, irrespective of the cause of such damage. The Student must pay for any repairs required to be made to the computer resulting from such damage. The Student will not be charged for routine maintenance to the computer or for technical assistance.

In the event that the laptop computer issued to the Student is lost or stolen, Remington College may provide a replacement computer on loan for use by the Student during the remainder of the Student's program. The Student agrees and acknowledges that use of the replacement computer will be subject to all terms and conditions applicable to the original computer issued, except that under no circumstances will this replacement computer ever become the property of the Student. If the Student fails to return the replacement computer, the Student will be charged $500.

If the Student successfully completes all Program courses, and is not delinquent on any payments owed to Remington College at the time of the completion of the Program, then, and only then, Remington College will transfer title of the laptop computer to the Student.

If the Student fails to complete the Program, the laptop computer, which is the property of Remington College, must be returned to Remington College. In these circumstances, if the Student does not return the laptop computer to Remington College, Remington College will consider the computer to have been stolen and converted by the Student, and will take such legal actions as it deems appropriate.

If the Student successfully completes all Program courses, but is delinquent on any payments owed to Remington College at the time of the completion of the Program, then Remington College will not transfer title of the laptop computer to the Student at that time, and the Student is required to promptly return the laptop computer to Remington College. If the Student has successfully completed all Program courses, but is delinquent on any payments owed to Remington College at the time of the completion of the Program, the Student shall have fifteen (15) days to bring their account with Remington College current, at which time Remington College will transfer title of the computer to the Student. If the Student in these circumstances who has not paid all delinquent amounts to Remington College, he/she will not get title to the laptop computer and will be charged a fee of $500 if the computer is not returned to Remington College within thirty (30) days of the end of the Student's final Quarter.

The Student agrees that Remington College retains ownership of the computer until Remington College transfers title to the Student upon meeting the conditions described in paragraph five above.

This Addendum to Application and Enrollment Agreement is incorporated by reference into the Enrollment Agreement executed by Student and Remington College and is a part of such Enrollment Agreement.

Student Signature: _____ Date: _____

School Representative: _____ Date: _____