ADDITIONAL MODIFICATIONS

Page 4: The third and fourth paragraphs in Item 4 of the Admissions Requirements and Procedures have been amended to read as follows:

One of the requirements to remain enrolled in the Heating, Ventilation and Air Conditioning diploma program and Medical Assisting diploma program is to be concurrently enrolled in Remington College's GED Test Preparation Course until you successfully pass the GED test. Otherwise, failure to remain concurrently enrolled in Remington College's GED Test Preparation Course will result in the termination of your enrollment with Remington College meaning you will be dropped from both the GED Test Preparation Course AND the corresponding career training diploma program.

Students who do not maintain satisfactory attendance in the GED Test Preparation Course will be dropped from both the GED Test Preparation Course AND the corresponding career training program. Additionally, students will be required to sit for the GED test (at no charge) no later than the end of the eighth module of the Program. Failure to take the GED test before the end of the eighth module will result in the student being dropped from both the GED Test Preparation Course AND the corresponding career training diploma program.

Page 6: The following Prior Learning Credit policy has been added to the Catalog.

Prior Learning Credit

After being admitted as a student at Remington College, the student can request a Course Challenge. A Course Challenge is a request to complete an exam similar to the final exam for the course. Some exams may require a lab demonstration component. The test will be a proctored exam, administered by a program specific representative. Successful completion of the exam with a grade of 70% or higher will qualify for Prior Learning Credit. The course grade will show on the students transcript as “TO” to document course completion. Once enrolled, the students can request the Course Challenge Request Form from the Campus President or Director of Education. A Course Challenge is not eligible once a student attempts the course. The completed form must be submitted and the Course Challenge exam must be completed prior to attempting or attending the course for which the student is requesting the challenge. Not all courses are eligible for Prior Learning Credit and certain programs may require a higher passing grade to fulfill the program specific requirements. The Chief Academic Officer can authorize approval for a Course Challenge when mitigating circumstances are presented. Prior Learning Credit will be counted as attempted and earned credit for the purpose of measuring the quantitative component of Satisfactory Academic Progress, but will not be calculated in the student's Grade Point Average for the purpose of measuring the qualitative component of Satisfactory Academic Progress.

Page 9: The Re-Enrollment and Re-Entry Policy has been amended to remove Item 2) of the Financial Criteria. All former students will be charged the current Tuition rate effective for the term in which their re-enrollment begins.

Page 10: The following has been added to the Tuition and Fees section of the Catalog.

PRIOR LEARNING CREDIT COURSE CHALLENGE FEE

Students requesting a course challenge under the Prior Learning Credit policy will be charged $150.00 per course. This fee is non-refundable once the course challenge request has been approved. If the request is denied, the fee will be refunded.

Page 21: The Campus is no longer enrolling students in the Cosmetology diploma program.

Pages 37-38: CJ1510 is no longer a prerequisite for CJ1558, CJ1568, CJ2711, CJ2730, or CJ2738.
The Attendance Policy for the GED Test Preparation Course has been replaced with the following policy.

The GED Test Preparation Course consists of 16 hours of instruction per each four-week module and is typically delivered in two-hour sessions two days per week. Students must attend at least 50% of the scheduled GED Test Preparation Course sessions each module. A student who does not attend at least 50% for two consecutive modules will be dropped from the GED Test Preparation Course AND the corresponding career training diploma program.
