

Constitution Day

In remembrance of the signing of the United States Constitution (“Constitution”) on September 17, 1787, President George W. Bush signed a bill into law on December 8, 2004, designating every September 17th as “Constitution Day”. All Remington College campuses celebrate the observance of Constitution Day each year through a variety of programs, activities and/or discussions. Additionally, students can learn more about the Constitution by visiting the National Archives website: <http://www.archives.gov/exhibits/charters/charters.html>.
